Abstract:

St. Paul, Minn.-based NPC Check Services and Deluxe Payment Protection Systems Inc. (DLX) agreed to share point-of-sale information, providing retailers with comprehensive check-writing information. Together, the two companies are amassing bad-check information for more than 166,000 retail locations. "By sharing negative check information, we'll improve the point-of-sale coverage for both NPC and SCAN merchants," says Tim Burk, president of Deluxe's division. "Retailers need more opportunities to make good decisions at the point of sale so they can increase sales while reducing losses, and the associated costs on the back end - costs due to returned check processing and collections." SCAN is the most widely accessed check- verification network, according to Deluxe officials. NPC provides traditional check management functions. (Tim Burk, Deluxe, 612/841- 6191; Kay Stewart, NPC, 502/560-7309.)

Nova and PMT Services Merge.

NOVA Corp. (NIS) of Atlanta and PMT Services Inc. (PMTS) of Nashville announced a $1.3 billion merger on June 18. The merger will create the country's fourth-largest provider of merchant bank card processing services, according to the parties. NOVA provides integrated transaction processing services, related software products and other services to small- and medium-size merchants. PMT Services Inc. is an independent service organization that markets and services electronic credit card authorization and payment systems to small retail and professional businesses. (Margaret Murphy, NOVA Corp., 770/698-1044; Scott Brittan, PMT Services Inc., 615/254-3376.)

Minolta Debuts Check Processing System.

Minolta Corp.'s office system division is introducing a check processing system that can copy as many as 60 checks per minute onto check-size paper. The system, which should simplify lockbox operations, can duplicate both personal and business-size checks. "Organizations with lockbox operations, such as banks, utility companies and loan and mortgage companies, will generate a higher return on their fees because equipment training and facility costs are reduced," says Don Nelson, copier product manager for the Ramsey, N.J.-based Minolta's office systems division. (Mary Lohmeier-Hass, Minolta Corp., 201/825-4000, mlohmeier-hass@minolta.com.)

Check TruncationTechnology Launches.

ChequeMARK Inc., a subsidiary of Vancouver-based Leisureways Marketing Ltd., entered a marketing rights agreement with EFTNet Corp. to provide ChequeMARK's patented electronic checking services, also known as point-of-sale check truncation. Electronic checking allows merchants to process checks in a manner identical to credit card transactions. ChequeMARK's centralized database and transaction processing center authorizes, captures and settles check payments in an automated manner. The ChequeMARK system should provide merchants with a paperless way to handle checks presented at the point of sale. During 1997, Americans wrote more than 34 billion personal checks with a face value of $4 trillion. At retail point-of-sale locations, consumers wrote more than 18 billion separate checks with face value of more than $636 billion. (Patrick Gaines, Leisureways Marketing Ltd., 888/800-2260.)
